The musical score is for the song "TSM" by T. S. Eliot. It is written in B-flat major (two flats) and 3/4 time. The score consists of five staves. The first three staves are vocal parts (Soprano, Alto, and Tenor/Bass), and the last two are instrumental parts (Piano and Bass). The lyrics are written below the vocal staves. The music features a mix of eighth, quarter, and half notes, with some rests. The instrumental parts provide a harmonic and rhythmic foundation for the vocal lines.
